

FCS Summer Reading 2019

English 8

Welcome to 8th Grade English! I am so excited to meet you in August, and I hope you have a sweet, relaxing summer. Before I get to see you face-to-face, I would love you to choose one of the book options below and complete the assignment detailed on the next page. You may choose to read The Hobbit, The Magician's Nephew, a book in the Percy Jackson book series (if you have already read the first book, choose the next book in the series that you haven't read), or you may choose either a book in The Giver quartet (if you have already read The Giver, choose the next book in the series that you haven't read) or Gossamer, both by Lois Lowry.

Reading Choices:

The Hobbit by J.R.R. Tolkien

The Magician's Nephew by C.S. Lewis

Any book in the Percy Jackson series by

Rick Riordan

Any book in The Giver Quartet, or

Gossamer by Lois Lowry

Assignment:

Write a two paragraph response to the book you have chosen for Summer reading discussing an “unlikely hero” that you saw in your reading. In the first paragraph, define what you believe an “unlikely hero” is. Make sure to include your thesis statement explaining what character you believe to be an unlikely hero. Please underline your thesis statement! In the second paragraph, describe the character and explain how they are an “unlikely hero” based on evidence (their actions, words, or responses throughout the story) from the book.

Here are the requirements for the written response:

- ☐ 2 typed paragraphs
- ☐ Thesis statement in the first paragraph, underlined
- ☐ Typed in Times New Roman, 12pt font
- ☐ Put your full name and a title at the top of the page
- ☐ Print your two paragraph response
- ☐ Finally, fill out and print the Parental Confirmation sheet

Rubric for written response:
